Praise Report on Africa Prays

Saturday April 4th, 2009

To God be all the glory for yet another wonderful time of fellowship at Africa Prays last Saturday at Hope Christian Church (HCC), Beltsville, MD. Paul Taiwo, ANU Executive Director, welcomed all present to worship and praise our Lord for Africa. Sister Seun Holmes gave a short opening thanksgiving prayer. Next, Sister Dola Ashamu, accompanied by Brothers Solomon Ekwukoma on keyboards and Ben Joseph on drums led us into a great time of worship.

The word given by Pastor Sina Adebisi of New Wine Assembly, RCCG, Washington, DC, charged all present to believe in the relevant vision of ANU, as the vision was founded on the word of our Lord. Reading from John 1:1-4, the word that brought light into all things God created. With much grace, favor and compassion, he encouraged all to press hard in prayer and praise for much work is needed from all for complete healing to come to Africa based on 2 Chron 7:14.

Sister Paulette Mpouma, directed the prayer session. She prayed the thanksgiving prayers for sustaining peace in Haiti, Kenya, Uganda, Congo DRC, Ivory Coast, Zimbabwe and Chad; for the protection, grace and favor for President Barack Obama, and that Easter Season will be a time of blessing and renewal on Africa.
