Truly, Africa is changing..Just believe! M.I.D.A / P.I.D.A!

Our Lord was lifted high Saturday May 4th, 2013 as we praised, danced and exalted Him, during Africa Prays Sixth Annual Thanksgiving Praise Worship Concert at Hope Christian Church in Beltsville, MD. An excited Executive Director of ANU, Rev. Oladele Chukwuemeka Paul Taiwo, gladly welcomed all who came to stand in the gap for Africa and especially commended those who came from out of town; Guitarist Mathurin Lokpo, who again, came in from Boston, MA; Sister Boladale Adeyinka from Abuja, Nigeria; Engr. Robert Ajuwon from Pittsburg, PA and many others from different churches and organizations. He testified that our prayers are being answered as is evident with the Divine Favor being witnessed across the continent, but he reminded all to continue to wait on the Lord, be patient, and PUSH and watch as our Lord's winds of change continues to transform Africa.

HCC elder and ANU Advisory Board member, Pastor Rudy DePass, said the opening prayer and welcomed all to Hope Christian Church, thanking God for ANU's diligence and consistency with the vision Habk 2:3. Rev Paul, then invited the ever faithful MC, Brother Richard Akwei, from Ghana-Togo, to facilitate the program. The energetic HCC Youth Praise team, led by vibrant Niya Wills, graced the atmosphere with praise songs such as 'Alleluia, You have won the victory...', and many more. The HCC Youth Dance team beautifully ministered and exalted our Lord to the song titled 'Be Lifted High' by Bethel and 'The Anthem...Alleluia U have won the victory...' by the Planetshakers. The ever faithful Sound of the Word praise team led by talented saxophonist, Pastor Niya Adams, ignited all to get up and praise and worship in song & dance to various popular praise songs.

Sister Paulette Mpouma, led a powerful time of prayer. She thanked God for all answered prayers over the years, giving us awesome testimonies across Africa in places like Kenya, Somalia, Mali, CAR, Ivory Coast, Nigeria and Zambia; for Wisdom in developing renewable energy in solving Africa's energy crises, especially Portable Solar Power System. The New Wine Assembly praise team, surprise fully blessed us with popular songs 'Hosanna in the highest'..., 'What shall we do today...'; and lastly, 'We lift UR Name higher...'. She encouraged all to check out Africa with her incredible changing landscape especially from Liberia, Ghana, Zambia, Nigeria, Rwanda, and many more. The affable joyous praise team of Agape Word Center Church, joyfully got all jumping, praising and dancing with 'Alpha and Omega U R worthy of our praise', 'this kind God Oh, I never see is kind before'...

He said, just returned from beautiful South Africa, he saw the need for brain re-gain into Africa to sow a seed of love; he then showed a YouTube clip which featured a six room classrooms block requested in Waithaka, Nairobi, Kenya, donated by Africa Ask, showing Pastor Patricia Johnson, an ANU Board member in Uganda, who traveled to review and document the project on behalf of ANU-AA project arm. The time for offering and donations was beautifully handled by Sister Seun Holmes, who thankfully encouraged all to sow liberally, saying that God loves a cheerful giver and Africa Needs their support to plant more blessed projects, now close to 20 projects across Africa. A short exaltation by Dr. (Mrs) Sarah Jibril, Special Adviser to Nigerian President Jonathan Goodluck on Ethics n Values admonished all to believe that Africa is changeable and reformable IJN.

The skit on the Centurion asking Christ to please help heal his sickly dying servant by just SAYING the WORD, was performed by Bro Virgil Newkirk as Christ and Femi Odukoya as the Centurion from Matt 8:8. A majestically powerful sax medley beginning with Daniel Bakare playing 'What shall I say unto the Lord...and U R Alpha n Omega, ANU's theme song, followed by Saxophonist Jay Holmes played Take Me To the King n Break Every Chain and rounded up with Pastor Niya with Ki lo le se Olorun mi... and Jesus You're The Center of My Joy, was met with a loud and thunderous ovation.
