Praise Report on Africa Prays

Saturday June 6th, 2009

Surely, it is good to Praise the Lord, and to give Him thanks and adoration for His mercy endures forever upon us and all of Africa. Another glorious Africa Prays session at RCCG - New Wine Assembly Church in Washington, DC., began with opening prayers by Sister Eniola Kioki followed by welcoming remarks and a praise recap of the 2nd Annual Thanksgiving Praise & Worship Concert that took place on May 2nd this year by Paul Taiwo, the Executive Director of ANU - photos @ AfricaNeedsU.org/ourprojects. The New Wine Assembly worship team led us in an exhilarating and powerful time of praise and worship unto our Lord for Africa.

Pastor Sina Adebisi of NWA, in his message, first thanked all who came out to Africa Prays to seek God for Africa thru praise. He talked about praise as a tested weapon that has never failed. He used 1 Sam 16: 14 - 23 to challenge all to understand the importance and power of praise in healing most infirmities. He also reminded all of the children of Israel's use of praise and worship as a weapon which gave them great victories. He prayed for ANU's vision and encouraged all to support and partner with the objective and directions for a greater tomorrow for Africa. Thanksgiving prayers led the path to June's prayer. Pastor Kemi Adebisi wonderfully directed the prayer points beginning with sustaining peace across some African countries; continuous protection, grace and favor for US President Barack Obama; the successfully hosting of Africa Prays 2nd Annual Thanksgiving Praise and Worship Concert on May 2nd, 2009 at Hope Christian Church in Beltsville, Md. The following were some of the other prayer points for June;

Please continue to lift these points up in prayer and join us at our next Monthly session on Saturday, July 4th, 4 - 6pm, 2009 at Hope Christian Church, Youth Worship Hall, Beltsville, MD. 20705.

An ingenious rendition of You are Alpha & Omega on violin by Nifemi and Mayowa Taiwo kicked-off another time of thanksgiving praise by the NWA Worship team. Afterwards, Paul Taiwo, gave a short praise report, but first thanked Pastor Adebisi and New Wine Assembly Church. He reminded all about ANU's 2nd project Africa Ask and gave a clearer outline. He admonished us to be patient, steadfast and continue to PUSH, that surely, God will be glorified thru ANU's vision for Africa. The session ended at 6:10pm with closing prayers by Brother Fikayo Olu-Ayeni, followed with a time of fellowship and light refreshments.
